Disclaimer:

These anchorages have been used by Tradewinds of Emsworth II. I accept no responsibility for information provided nor for the accuracy of the place names or Latitudes or Longitudes. It is the Captain's responsibility to always anchor where he judges it to be safe and suitable in full consideration of the local environment, the proximity of land or other surface or subsurface obstructions, the position and swinging range of other boats at anchor, current and forecasted weather conditions and any other relevant factors.
